Pitching Backwards

Life can only be understood backward but it must be lived forward. On the mound of life, look backwards and look carefully ... then turn around and you’ll be ready to pitch forward.

In baseball there is a term “pitching backwards.” Amongst its multiple meanings is the pitcher throwing first a couple of off speed pitches, a curve or a slider and then going to the fast ball. The usual approach has been to mostly begin with a fast ball and then mix it up from there. This has been a sort of a backward summer for Janie and me. We normally head for Israel at the beginning of July and return sometime later in the month. This summer was different. In the late fall, we were excited to learn that Samara was pregnant. She and Jordan would be expecting a child in July. A few months later, we learned that they were expecting a boy and indeed he is, Max Oscar, Moshe Yehoshua.

Our plans were to look into tickets to Israel after the baby was born knowing we would be in town for another eight days. That’s why I say its been a backwards summer. For the first time in thirty some years I was still in the office in July and away for much of August. It was a summer of feeling like I was pitching backwards.

In reading Sheryl Sandberg’s Option B, I came across a quote from the philosopher Soren Kierkegard “life can only be understood backward but it must be lived forward.” Don’t go on reading just yet! Take a moment to digest the meaning of these words. It may have a different meaning for each of us. In moving forward, we are always entering some unchartered domain. We don’t have all the information. We don’t know what the other external variables will be. We can only do our best. The big question is how do we do our best. I think it is right to say that those who look backward, replay it, examine and analyze it are best prepared to move forward. Woe to the one who has no interest in the past for his future has no direction. There is that famous teaching by George Santayana which is quoted with slight variations, “those who forget the past are doomed to repeat it.” These words have been somewhat updated to be “those who forget the past are doomed to retweet it.”

You and I are very fortunate. We have been given a gift. Open that gift and it contains the necessary pieces to go forward in life. This amazing gift comes with no manual on putting the pieces together but it give us a very big clue.

The gift is called the High Holy Days. It is ten days of turning backwards and examining our lives, our behaviors, our successes, our failures. Here is an exercise which you can do any time between now, up until or during the High Holy Day season. Make a list of your ten best behaviors this past year. I hope that in the period of the past twelve months, we can come up with ten. If necessary go back another year or another year. You will feel better in reading your list of your ten best.

Only after you’ve done that, make a list of ten behaviors this past year that you would not be proud to shout from the rooftop. If you can’t think of any, your on your way. Number one is I never realize that I have done anything wrong. This serious examination is the manual to putting the pieces together and moving forward in the best possible way. In making your list, you may not feel better right away but you will undoubtedly do better. You will not be perfect this coming year but you’ll be moving in the right direction. Backwards and forwards. On the mound of life, look backwards and look carefully. Think hard and think deep. Turn around and you’ll be ready to pitch forward. Your fast ball will be unhittable and your slider devastating.
Ohev Shalom is a community that relies upon our wonderful volunteers. We would not be the vibrant, caring congregation that we are without all of the time and work that so many members display on a daily basis to coordinate key programs and events. One of the greatest hidden jewels at Ohev Shalom is Cook For a Friend. Recently, I had the opportunity to sit with member Cheryle Goldberg, who is the chair of the program. Personally, I did not know about the history and inception of the program. I am in awe of the people that run this project and am inspired by them and the mitzvah that they perform on a monthly basis for those in need.

Cook For a Friend began at Ohev Shalom approximately 31 years ago in 1986, under the direction and leadership of Soni Feld. In 1988, when Cheryle’s daughter, Ali, was looking for a Bat Mitzvah project to participate in, they joined the team. Cheryle eventually became the chair of the program and has dedicated herself to the role for nearly 30 years. There is a team of approximately 20 regular volunteers who come out the third Wednesday of each month to prepare 300 meals for those who require support.

The Cook For a Friend team is a well-oiled machine. They prepare small packaged meals in tins that can be either heated and served or frozen and re-heated at a later date. The meals consist of chicken, fish or pasta, along with a variety of vegetables and rye bread. After the 300 meals are packaged, they are delivered to the JCC Klein Branch in Northeast Philadelphia to help feed the senior citizens at the JCC and others who are homebound.

When the program began, the food to make the meals was generously donated by local area butchers, bakeries and supermarkets. This is no longer the case. Now, our Ohev team must purchase all of the food themselves. The cost of the food each month is approximately $500 to make the 300 meals. Cook For a Friend is completely dependent upon the generous donations made by you, our congregants, to fund this critical community project. In addition, to successfully

Congregant of the Month

By Eileen Schein

Perhaps nothing captures the essence of Suzanne Gold more than these words by Ignacio Estrada: “If a child can’t learn the way we teach, maybe we should teach the way they learn.”

A Master Teacher of Special Education in the School District of Philadelphia for more than three decades, Suzanne has continued her passion for meeting the needs of those most special students who face severe learning challenges in the warm, loving environment of Ohev Shalom’s Hebrew School program. Thanks to her and the other caring members who are part of Ohev Shalom’s Inclusion B’Kavod program, Jewish children from all areas of Bucks County and northeast Philadelphia are able to participate in a monthly Shabbat morning program, Celebrations!@Ohev, at their own comfort level while each child’s individual differences are embraced. In her position as the Special Needs Coordinator of our Hebrew School, Suzanne serves as a resource for parents and teachers, helping to develop accommodations and individualized plans to enable students to achieve success in their Hebrew studies.

The connection that Suzanne and husband Larry have to Ohev Shalom, along with that of daughter Ariel and son Jeffrey, began when they settled into the growing Deerfield North community of Bucks County some 30 years ago. It was a natural extension to join their friends and neighbors at our young, flourishing synagogue as they made their commitment to be active participants and provide their children with a sense of their heritage and Jewish learning. Ariel’s Bat Mitzvah was followed by Jeffrey’s Bar Mitzvah a few years later, and both were confirmed as well. Suzanne and Larry continue to be regulars at Friday night services. Their trip to Israel with other members of Ohev Shalom was a great joy and an unforgettable component of their devotion to Judaism.

Our synagogue is graced almost daily with Suzanne’s participation in a myriad of activities, including Sisterhood, Book Club, NewCAJE (Coalition for the Advancement of Jewish Education), and Jewish Learning Venture. She humbly insists that she is “merely a spoke in the wheel” of what makes Ohev Shalom and its congregants such a strong, vital, and welcoming synagogue, and is convinced that she has received so much more than she has given.

Mazel tov to one of the key contributors to our community, September’s Congregant of the Month - Suzanne Gold!

Fall is approaching, and it is time to take out the pots and pans and get ready for Cook For a Friend. I need your help, so if you can spare 1 1/2 hours each month, please come out to help prepare 300 meals each month for the needy.

I would like to thank and acknowledge the dedicated volunteers who have helped this past year: Roy Silverman, Nina Surden, Paula Rosenzweig, Alan Block, Steve Finer, Steve & Harriet Rellis, Marc & Shelley Barbash, Rick Goldberg, Roz & Stan Schwartzman, Scott Gordon, Al Wiesner, Marty & Gail Rosenfeld, Linda Blumberg, Judy Gershman, Sandy Savett and Toby Kolman. A special thank you to Steve Rellis for transporting the meals to the JCC. If I’ve forgotten anyone who has helped out, I sincerely apologize.

A special thanks to everyone who has generously contributed to Cook For a Friend this year. Without your financial support and generous contributions we would not have been able to buy the food necessary to prepare 300 meals each month to feed the needy.

To those students who are looking for a meaningful Bar or Bat Mitzvah project or need community service points for high school, and want to perform a wonderful mitzvah, please consider joining our Cook For a Friend team.

Our first Cook For a Friend cooking event is scheduled for Wednesday, September 6, 2017, from 5:30 - 7:00 pm.

SANDY BLUMENTHAL
What sets Sisterhood and Women's League apart from most other worthy Jewish women organizations is that we are synagogue based. Here, I can not only identify as a Jewish woman, but I am also able to embrace my Judaism. Book reviews and discussions, Rosh Hodesh celebrations, challah bakes and Jewish cooking, Israel, current events, Jewish women’s concerns … many of the most meaningful Sisterhood moments I have experienced have been a part of our religious and cultural programs. Learning together brings us together. The 2017 Sisterhood Shabbat, the thirty-ninth I have participated in, is an annual event, traditionally held on Mother’s Day weekend, with the women of our Sisterhood stepping up to leadership in our Shabbat service. It is important to me as a Conservative Jewish woman to come together with my sisters to lead our Ohev davening.

Each month, we begin our board meetings with a D’var Torah. This sets the mood and tone for what follows. My role on the religious and cultural team is to prepare and facilitate our Divrei Torah. It is always a highlight of my month. I contemplate what is going on in our lives and on our calendar. I select and research a theme. Sometimes, I borrow or adapt existing materials from Women’s League or other sources. Other times, I use my research to write an original piece. Always, my goal is to make it interactive. The women at our table participate, contribute, and discuss. We have parsed verses, shared our beliefs, reflected on our own traditions, and even had a mini laugh yoga therapy circle for Purim! I really believe that it allows us to know one another a little bit better and that contributes to a stronger, dynamic Sisterhood. This Is Us!

LINDA BARANKIN
Shabbat shalom! Sometimes life will surprise you! The new hot show this season This Is Us is a refreshing, honest and provocative series which follows a unique ensemble whose paths cross and life stories intertwine in curious ways. We find several of them share the same birthday and so much more than we would expect. Similar to right here within our Ohev world, some of us grew up on the same street, graduated from high school together, attended the same college, or were in one another’s wedding.

Sisterhood embraces a cast of characters, some may be just that, characters, but we all have stories, challenges, and everyday drama. Together we share, we care and intertwine within one another’s lives as a support system for each woman and for our community. One woman’s goal becomes our mutual goal to achieve. Together we are the sisters we have chosen for ourselves and tonight we share our THIS IS US story.

MICHELE BERNSTEIN
This is us. This is our sisterhood. And Torah Fund has intertwined with our story in more ways than you think. Did you know that the funds we contribute to Torah Fund helped to educate Cantor Annelise at the H. L. Miller Cantorial School at the Jewish Theological Seminary, and she is now our cantor, here at Ohev? That List College, the joint undergraduate program between Columbia University and JTS, educated Nina’s son, Todd Surden, who is a now a lawyer and president of his congregation in Atlanta? That Sandy’s daughter, Kim Blumenthal, who went to JTS from the Joint Program through Rabbinical School, is now a rabbi and has a congregation in Ann Arbor, Michigan? Our contributions to Torah Fund help support the Jewish Theological Seminary in N.Y., the Ziegler School of Rabbinical Studies in CA, the Schechter Institute of Jewish Studies in Jerusalem, the Seminario Rabinico Latinoamericano in Buenos Aires, and Zacharias Frankel College in Potsdam, Germany. The pins you see many of us wearing are in recognition of donations given to Torah Fund. These and all donations to Torah Fund contribute to educating and molding our future professional and lay leaders - I hardly knew any of that when I bought my first pin 15 years ago. This year our pin symbolizes p’ri yadehah, which means the fruit of her hands. And we fittingly honored my sister Arlene Frimark at Women’s League’s Mid-Atlantic Region spring conference, which we proudly hosted here.

Women’s League for Conservative Judaism is devoted to Jewish communal service and its voice is growing stronger. I am very proud of the ongoing contribution that our Sisterhood gives to Torah Fund. Women’s League members are at the forefront of the battle for women’s equality on the pulpit and in the workplace. This sounds just like my Sisterhood. This is us!

EILEEN NOLAN
I’ve been asked to give the congregation a look inside the Ohev Shalom Women’s Torah Study Group – past and present. Well, this is us. At one end of the spectrum, there’s founding member, Rebbetzin Janie Perlstein, whose Jewish education began at birth, and at the other end, there’s me, whose Jewish education began when I married a Jewish “wanna-be.” There is no woman sitting out there today who doesn’t fall somewhere on this spectrum.
So, this is us, and you are welcome to join us to listen, learn and exchange ideas in an informal social setting. The group has been meeting in women’s homes at 12:30 pm on the 3rd Tuesday of the month since the beginning of the millennium. While the cast of characters has evolved over the years, the group has endured and is stronger than ever. Check out the Dove Tale to see how to get added to our email distribution list or contact me at EileenLNolan@gmail.com.

DANI BECKER
Z’HAVAH … the new kid in town!! Z’Havah is our Ohev Shalom sisterhood for younger women. Z’havah women are single, married, young, professional or not, with or without children … attending services twice a year, or once a week. Wherever we fall on that list, the group has endured and is stronger than ever. Check out the Dove Tale to see how to get added to our email distribution list or contact me at EileenLNolan@gmail.com.

HEDY HOFFMAN
Sisterhood is all about connections and friendships and through those connections we accomplish so much. A big part of what we accomplish is through our fundraising for Ohev and Torah Fund. I began my journey on the board as Vice President of Ways and Means and what I learned goes so far beyond raising money. I learned that there are incredible women in this synagogue. I learned to fundraise through my mentors. I learned how to be a leader. I was taught so well that I ended up as Co-President only 2 years later. I am so happy to have been, and continue to be, on this journey since it gave me all of my “sisters”.

HOLLY GOLDBERG & NANCY BLOOM
This is us … a perfect, all-encompassing way to describe our Sisterhood membership. We are a smart, creative, enthusiastic group of women with a great passion and pride for the roles and responsibilities we undertake here at Ohev Shalom. We are women working together for the Sisterhood and the Ohev Shalom community through fun, unique, outstanding activities and fundraising programs. Friendships are fostered, social connections are achieved, enjoyable times are shared, and Jewish values are cultivated.
Ari Berkowitz

My name is Ari Berkowitz and I am 13 years old. My B’nai Mitzvah is September 9, 2017. I am very excited to become a man in the eyes of the Jewish world and hold adult responsibilities. I have a 15 year old brother, Josh, and of course, my twin sister, Becky.

I attend Richboro Middle School in the seventh grade. I achieved honors in Science, Social Studies, and Math. I hope to make the middle school basketball team and be involved in student council, and maybe track and field too.

I enjoy watching baseball, basketball, and football - especially when the NY Giants are doing well. I love to play fantasy football with my friends, and help my dad with his fantasy baseball team. I love social media such as Snapchat and Instagram and my favorite TV channels to watch are ESPN, MLB Network and NBA TV. TV shows I liked are Fuller House, iCarley, and Good Luck Charlie. I also love to be with my family.

For my B’nai Mitzvah project, I will be volunteering at Ann’s Choice to help the residents enjoy activities and keep them company.

I would like to thank my family who have helped me so much along this long, fun journey, and especially my sister Becky who is always there for me and helps me do things better along the way. I would also like to thank the people that taught me all through Ohev Shalom, beginning with Cantor Paul and all my Hebrew school teachers especially Morah Annie, Morah Marla and Morah Michele. They taught me all about being Jewish and our customs and beliefs. I want to give a big thanks to Cantor Hirsch and Allan Katz for stepping in to help out with my lessons. I especially want to thank Cantor Annelise and Rabbi Perlstein who guided me through my B’nai Mitzvah lessons.

I am psyched to celebrate my big day with my family, friends, and share it with my biggest supporter, Becky.

Becky Berkowitz

Hello my name is Becky Berkowitz and I am 13 years old. My B’nai Mitzvah is September 9th 2017. I am very excited! I am a 7th grader at Richboro Middle School. I have an older brother Josh, who is 15 and my twin brother Ari who will be sharing this special day with me.

On my free time I like to dance competitively and hang out with my friends and have sleepovers. I like making spunky smoothies and sharing them with my family and friends. I dance at Elite Dance Academy and I do hip-hop, jazz and ballet. I enjoy it a lot! I really like using social media such as Snapchat and Instagram. I like being a curious human being and like to look at everyone’s feed.

For my B’nai Mitzvah project, I will be volunteering at Ann’s Choice to help the residents with dance and movement to help make their lives brighter.

I would like to thank Cantor Hirch and Allan Katz for helping out with our lessons. A huge shout-out to Cantor Annelise for guiding me through my lessons and to Rabbi Perlstein for helping with my D’var Torah. Without my parents I would not become a B’nai Mitzvah. My parents have helped me through everything for which I am super thankful. I also want to thank my other favorite older brother, Josh.

I am very happy to share this special day with friends family and especially my #1 twin Ari, who is always there for me.
My name is Toby Rozengarten and I am an eighth grade student at Richboro Middle School. My favorite subjects are social studies and gym. Some of my favorite sports are soccer and basketball. When I have free time I like to do things outside and read. I also like to spend time with my dog Ginger. Sometimes I like to ride my bike and go swimming. Finally, I would like to thank my mom and dad for helping me so much with my Bar Mitzvah. I wouldn’t have been able to do it without them.

Today, when I entered the library, it was hot there and if I were the type, I would have begun hyperventilating! The temperature; the desk, covered with donated books, piled close to a foot high, probably close to 100 of them; the computer/holocaust room's floor, strewn with pre-school materials (I learned then that the pre-school was moved to the second floor temporarily and they promised to remove their materials before the day was over). BUT the books on my desk … many were mildewed and covered with black mold. Most were from the 70's to the 90's and duplicates of what had been uncirculated in the library for decades. These could not be kept in our tiny library. So I, a little old lady, shlepped most of the books to the paper recycling bin on this very hot and humid day.

I would appreciate having volunteers to help with cataloguing and discarding what is not usable.

And some good news - I did learn that the children in the religious school will again be scheduled to visit the library and I will have the glorious opportunity to know the children and share wonderful stories with them.

Hope your summer is going well.

I highly recommend Custom House General Contractors from personal experience with their work. They created a deck on my new home. Using top quality materials and within the time and budget quoted. I am totally satisfied with all aspects of their work.

Enhancements and Improvements

Non-profit organizations can play a vital role impacting the success of Jewish life. Synagogues play a significant role in the practice of the Jewish religion as they provide a social meeting space, conduct prayer services, and offer educational programs for adults and youth. Ohev Shalom of Bucks County provides spiritual, social and educational support and services for its families. Jewish education is a priority for our synagogue. We are fortunate to have an education committee led by chairperson Marnie Dratch, who oversees and supports the goals of the school. As Education Director, I manage the school and support the synagogue’s mission. The faculty, education chair, other lay leaders, and I collaborate to develop educational goals, standards and best practices. Our fabulous faculty strengthens and helps mold our students’ Jewish identity. Most importantly, our families help support the entire Jewish educational journey at Ohev Shalom. Each September I share with Dove Tale readers the enhancements and improvements for the upcoming year. For the 2017-18 school year, we are introducing class Kavod (respect) Code, a way for students to set the tone of study for the school year. Students will collaborate to create their class Kavod Code, which they will then share with their family. Several new school-wide holiday celebrations are planned throughout the year, including guest speakers, a Hanukkah sing and an Israel celebration. Some grade specific programs are an olive oil workshop for Mechina (2nd grade) and Aleph (3rd grade), babka baking for Bet (4th grade) and Israel specific programs for Gimel (5th grade), Daled (6th grade) and Hei (7th grade) students. Tichon will participate in a Jewish history walking tour of Philadelphia, as well as many exciting new trips and events, which also support the curriculum. As always, we look forward to our in-house staff professional development day and additional opportunities to learn about new directions in Jewish education.

In this age of technology, we also know that our families and teachers are inundated with information from all channels of life. As a congregational supplementary religious school, we are mindful of this and hope to enhance our communication without overwhelming your inbox. Chai Lites, the weekly email newsletter, will be sent on Fridays and you will notice some enhancements to the format and content, making it more reader-friendly. Paper flyers will continue to be sent home with students. However, paper flyers will only be sent home with the oldest student of families who have more than one child enrolled in the school. Be sure to read Chai Lites, future issues of the Dove Tale, and visit our Hebrew School Facebook page for updates and photos. Shana Tova umetuka!

Sponsored by The Social Action Committee
Ohev Shalom of Bucks County

The plight of the homeless and hungry is constantly before us. Part of the meaning of Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur is to remind us of our responsibility to help relieve misery. That responsibility is explicit in Isaiah’s timeless message in the Haftarah for Yom Kippur:

This is my chosen fast...
Share your bread with the hungry.
Take the homeless into your home.
Clothe the naked when you see him.
Do not turn away from people in need
(Isaiah 58:6-7)

With Isaiah’s words serving as an ideal, we again call upon our congregation to join us in the joy of giving.

- Please place your donations of non-perishable foods (cans, unopened cartons) in garbage bags or boxes.
- Bring them with you when attending services on Kol Nidre.
- Food collection is limited to Friday evening, September 29, 2017, just prior to the beginning of Kol Nidre services.
- The food will be collected on at tables marked with signs.

Let us enter into Yom Kippur by engaging in Tikkun Olam, repairing the world!
Donations will benefit the homeless of Bucks County.
High Holy Days

Services are open to the community for Erev Rosh Hashanah, the evening of the 1st day & the entire 2nd day. On Yom Kippur, the community is invited to Yizkor services, beginning at 1:15 and to stay through the conclusion of services.

Your synagogue bill must be current, as of August 31, 2017 to receive High Holy Day tickets.

Reserved Seats
- The reserved seats are for the first and second days of Rosh Hashanah, Kol Nidre, and Yom Kippur services.
- A limited number of Reserved Seats are available for $250 per seat.
- Reserved seating is on a first come-first served basis.

Child Ticket Policy
- Children between the ages of 13 & 21 are included in their parents tickets. They will not receive a separate ticket.
- If your eligible child is between the ages of 22 & 30, you need to call the synagogue office to request a ticket by September 14, 2017.
- If your child is a full time student, regardless of age or marital status, or is single and age 30 years or younger, he or she may attend High Holy Day services as part of his/her parents’ family unit with no additional fees. The Ohev Shalom office must be notified by Friday, September 14, 2017.
- If your child is not a full time student, children of congregants in good standing may attend services if:
  - A $36 minimum contribution per person per holiday is paid by the married children, who with their spouse, have a combined age of 60 years or less.
  - A $36 minimum contribution per person per holiday is paid by the single children, who with their significant other, have a combined age of 60 years or less.

Guest Ticket Policy
- Guest tickets are $150 per person for either Rosh Hashanah OR Kol Nidre/Yom Kippur; and $300 per person for both holidays.
- Guest tickets for extended family (limited to parents, children or siblings) are available to unaffiliated relatives living outside a 30-mile radius of Ohev Shalom. Guest tickets will be limited to 2 per Ohev Shalom family.
- Guest tickets are required for an unmarried child over 30 years of age or a married child, whose combined age with his/her spouse exceeds 60 years of age.
- For unaffiliated relatives, guest ticket reservations with payment must be arranged in advance. All guest ticket requests are to be received by the synagogue office no later than Friday, September 14, 2017 and they will be mailed separately to the host congregant.
- A member of an out-of-town synagogue may worship with us as a guest, provided arrangements have been made in advance with our synagogue office. Out-of-town synagogue guests need to provide proof of membership from their “home-base synagogue.”

Babysitting
- Babysitting is available to our congregational family on the premises of the synagogue.
- Hours are 9 - 1 Rosh Hashanah and 9 - End of Yizkor Yom Kippur.
- Deadline is September 14, 2017.
- The babysitting accommodation is limited to children ages 2 to 4 years old, who can adjust easily to parental separation.
- For your child’s safety and security ALL CHILDREN MUST BE PRE-REGISTERED.
- All children in babysitting will be eating lunch at 12:00pm. Please send your child with a kosher dairy lunch (including a drink). A baby-changing table will be provided in the school building. Please be sure to bring sufficient diaper changing supplies.

Sukkot
Don’t forget to order your Lulav & Etrog for Sukkot.

For information contact Paula Segal at 215-322-9819 or email at psegal@ohev.org.

Orders need to be placed by September 19, 2017.

For questions call Hilary Leboff in the synagogue office at 215-322-9595 ext 112.

Congregants will be asked to present their tickets upon entering the Grand Hall. No one will be admitted to any service without presenting a ticket.

Tickets are not transferable.
You can once again reserve seats for the two days Rosh Hashanah, Kol Nidre, and Yom Kippur services! The reserved seats will be located in three different sections and will, as always, be in comfortable, soft upholstered chapel chairs. The reserved seats will be assigned on a first-come, first-served basis and will be mailed to members in good standing in September.

While reserved seating is of course optional, it is an excellent opportunity to provide financial support for the synagogue and to have the convenience of knowing exactly where your family will be sitting. To reserve your seats, please complete the form below and return to Ohev Shalom along with your check.

You can now buy a RESERVED PARKING SPOT for the High Holy Days ($300.00). Parking is going to be at a premium! You may want to also consider reserving a parking spot for all year long for only $1,500.00.

Presidents' Message

As I write this it’s about 95 degrees and sunny. When you read this, it will be a bit cooler, and the sun will be setting a bit earlier every day. To me, fall always feels like a fresh start, like new pencils in your binder and blank pages to be filled.

Our official Sisterhood year ended in June with our wonderful Donor Dinner. After a very short break, we are back and planning our exciting activities for the upcoming season. We will have some new events, as well as bringing back the favorites you love - Challah baking, trivia night, book reviews, theater trip and SWEETS. In early November we will be presenting Puttin’ On the Ritz, our Fashion Show and Shopping night, always a highlight of any Sisterhood year. And in the spring, our annual (and gigantic) Bingo! In October we are collaborating with the other auxiliaries to bring you Gil Hoffman, writer for the Jerusalem Post, an outstanding and exciting speaker who will give us the Israeli perspective on Jerusalem.

We look forward to having you join us as we begin the new year. There’s something for everyone and without you Sisterhood would not be complete.

Wishing all of you a L’Shana Tovah!

B’Shalom,

Michele, Susan and Ivy

Boscov Day

Friends Helping Friends Day at Boscov’s is October 17, 2017. Purchase a $5.00 pass and receive a 25% OFF discount. All shopping pass proceeds sold by Sisterhood will be donated to us! Please contact Miriam Gendler at 215-968-9695 to purchase the passes.

Women's Torah Study Group

The Ohev Shalom Women’s Torah Study Group gets together monthly to kibbitz and discuss the meaning and relevance of upcoming Torah and Hafarah portions. Meetings are held at 12:30 pm on the third Tuesday of the month (unless this conflicts with a Jewish holiday). These informal study sessions are facilitated and hosted by various group members at their homes but volunteering to facilitate or host is not a requirement for participating. Participants are encouraged to bring a dairy lunch.

Our next meeting will be on the 17th of October at the home of Florrie Fisher. Any woman interested in being added to the email distribution announcing meeting times and topics should send her email address to EileenLNolan@gmail.com.

Birthday Greetings

A Birthday Greetings flyer will be arriving in the next mailing. Every Sisterhood member receives a card for their birthday. You can be part of this great tradition by sending your birthday wishes to all of your sisters for $118 - that covers the whole year! We take care of the card and mailing for you! Individual greetings are .75 each. Just put a check next to the recipient’s name, and we will add your name to the Sisterhood card.

Please mail check payable to “Ohev Shalom Sisterhood” and mail to:

Terry Jaffe
70 Poplar Drive
Richboro, PA 18954

Any questions - please contact tiafe3192@aol.com.

Membership

Looking for a way to get away from the daily routine? Sisterhood and Z’hava are the way to go. Every month we have new and exciting programs geared to all ages. Bring a friend, bring a family member or just come by yourself. What a great way to make new friendships and renew old ones.

Our opening event for members is on October 17th at 9:30 am. Please come and join us for a delicious brunch and Israeli dancing. Moms feel free to drop your children off at Hebrew school and join us. It will be a morning to remember. For more information on membership please contact reeneuyurovsky@gmail.com or danib102030@gmail.com.

Mah Jongg

Mah Jongg begins on Sept. 5! We will be meeting every Tuesday at 12:00 to play (there are no conflicts due to the holidays). If you are an experienced player, please join us.

The cost is $3.00 a week x 19 weeks = $57.00 payable to Ohev Shalom Sisterhood at the beginning of the fall session. Hope to see you then.

Please call Linda Shapiro at 215-322-1166 with any questions.

The Ohev Shalom Men’s Club wishes everyone in our community L'Shanah Tovah for 5778 and beyond. We look forward to seeing all of you at services later in September.

The Club had a successful closing affair with speaker and author Harry Boonin who spoke about Jewish Boxers during the early 1900s and how they helped their families to make it through the tough times.

In September we will have our opening meeting. At this writing, it’s still in the planning stages, but we expect it will be something regarding current events and will be of interest to all.

Several weeks ago, Ron Rolf, Mark Podob and I attended the International Federation of Jewish Men’s Clubs biannual convention in Washington, DC. Mark and Ron are both Vice Presidents of our Middle Atlantic Region. Four days of intensive programming all aimed at one purpose: Having our club be more visible and having more relevance within Ohev Shalom, while at the same time focusing on services for, and the needs of, the men of Ohev.

I wrote earlier about the “Hearing Men’s Voices” program starting soon. This has become a nationwide program and is a keynote of the FJMC.

Also, for the first time, the “Men of Reform Judaism” joined the FJMC at the convention. The effort was to bring together both sets of clubs and their common interests, and to strengthen the individual organizations. Jointly, there were over 550 men at the meetings.

Our membership is growing and I urge you all to send in the form at the bottom of this article and send in your checks. You don’t want to miss any of the upcoming year.

We have been getting some interesting suggestions for programming. Please keep the suggestions coming.
