

Torah on Tap

The weekly Torah portion (Hebrew: פרשת השבוע Parashat ha-Shavua), popularly just parashah (or parshah /pɑːrʃə/ or parsha) and also known as a Sidra (or Sedra /sɛdrə/) is a section of the Torah (Five Books of Moses) used in Jewish liturgy during a single week.*

Our next installment of the popular "Torah on Tap" series is set for November 29, 2018. If you ever wanted to sit down and have a beer with the Rabbi and engage in an informal lively discussion – now is your chance. The week's parshah and its relevance to current affairs will be discussed.

Torah on Tap, sponsored by the Ohev Shalom Men's Club, will feature refreshments including beer (alcoholic and non-alcoholic), soft drinks, and snacks.

This is a great opportunity for learning and having interesting conversation with engaging people while enjoying your favorite beverage in a relaxed atmosphere.

There is no charge for this event and it is open to the entire Congregation, including men and women.

Please come for minyan at 7:00 P.M. and stay for Torah on Tap, starting at 7:30.

While RSVP's aren't necessary it would be helpful to have a headcount. For more details and to RSVP, contact Mark Podob, mtpodob@gmail.com or 215-837-8447.

* Wikipedia

Ohev Shalom celebrates the uniqueness of each individual/family and welcomes diversity in our sacred community.