Yizkor Memorial Book of Remembrance
5781
Yizkor 5781

Dear Friends,

We have been surrounded by death the past six months thousands dying in a day as we approach 200,000 lives lost.

So many have died alone. There have been very few to comfort the mourners at funerals. No one can come to the mourner’s home with a comforting hug. Siblings each go their own way to mourn separately. So much has been taken from us.

How much we miss those mourning customs. We take them for granted until we no longer have them. Today, we appreciate how valuable they are.

We have found a way to pray as a community and to observe Yizkor today. We are not totally disconnected. Not from our loved ones and not from each other. We will recite the usual Yizkor prayers and psalms from our own homes if not our synagogue home. This Yizkor service will be saved on our website and available to you throughout the year.

We remember those who have gone to their eternal home. We express our love in our remembering. For ourselves, we are commanded “Choose Life.” Let us do exactly that. Let us restore so much we have lost and never lose the memories of those who came before us and have shown us the way.

All those for whom we recite Yizkor today, may their memories remain for a blessing.

G'mar H'Atimah Tovah,
Rabbi Elliott N. Perlstein
On Yom Kippur We Remember Them

Cong: We remember.
Our lives are a tapestry
and the threads are all of the people
we have encountered.
On this ultimate day of personal involvement and individual introspection we cannot forget all of the ways in which we were never only one.
Cong: We remember.
Our ritual of remembrance recalls all of those who once populated our lives but whose physical presence has passed forever from among us.
Cong: We remember.
All the generations of men and women past, present and those to come - are united in one bond of life.
Our ability to remember is stronger than death.
Naming them, we vanquish death.
Cong: We remember.
Some of us recall parents, father and mother,
who even before we were born committed themselves to our care, who prepared a loving home for us and taught us the most basic elements of humaneness and the most profound truths of humanity.
Cong: We remember.
Some of us recall a wife or husband, with whom we were united by the sacred covenant of marriage that we became one flesh and one spirit, whose soul completed
our own and with whom we hoped to live out our lives.
Cong: We remember.

Psalm 23

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures;
He leadeth me beside the still waters;
He restoreth my soul;
He guideth me in straight paths
For His name's sake
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death
I will fear no evil;
For Thou art with me;
Thy rod and thy staff, they comfort me.
Thou hast anointed my head with oil;
My cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life
And I shall dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
On The Festival Days We Remember Them

We remember those who lived, learned, prayed, celebrated and mourned with us in times gone by.
We remember mothers and fathers who built a foundation for our lives.
We remember the love that made those relationships holy.
We remember brothers and sisters.
We remember children, taken before we were ready.
We remember friends who touched our lives.
May this sanctuary be a safe container for our memory and our grief.
O G-d, on this holy day, help us to remember.

And we say together:

Let their memories be for a blessing.
In recalling their struggles, we become able to face our own.
Let their memories be a blessing.
In reflecting on their joy, we become able to savor our own.
Let their memories be a blessing.
Give us the courage to transform loss into hope for the future.
Let their memories be a blessing.
And we say: Amen

Some of us remember brothers and sisters who grew up with us, sharing in the play of childhood and the adventure of discovery.

Cong: We remember.
Some of us recall children, entrusted for too short a time to our care but called away by death, to whom we tried to give the world and for whom we gladly would have died that they might live.

Cong: We remember.
All of us recall some special persons whose, friendships, affection and devotion called forth the best in us, and whose comradeship always will be sorely missed.
The deaths of those we now remember left gaping holes in our lives. But we are grateful for the gift that was their lives.
And we are strengthened by the blessing left to us, by the memories which comfort and sustain us, by the love we know can never die.
We honor their memories on this day and commit ourselves to persevering in the pursuit of their ideals to continue to dream their dreams and to living our lives in living testimony of the example they set for us.

Eternal G-d, give us the gift of remembering.
Give us the gift of tears
So that we may express our sense of loss and pain.
Give us the gifts of prayer and hope
So that we always believe in the beauty of life, the power of goodness, the right to joy.
Make us worthy of the love we have received
So that we may love You with all our heart and with all our soul, with all our strength, and with all our minds.

YIZKOR - In remembrance of a wife:

May God remember the soul of my beloved wife who has gone to her eternal rest. In tribute to her memory I pledge to perform acts of charity and goodness. May the deeds I perform and the prayers I offer help to keep her soul bound up in the bond of life as an enduring source of blessing. Amen.

YIZKOR - In remembrance of a son:

May God remember the soul of my beloved son who has gone to his eternal rest. In tribute to his memory I pledge to perform acts of charity and goodness. May the deeds I perform and the prayers I offer help to keep his soul bound up in the bond of life as an enduring source of blessing. Amen.

YIZKOR - In remembrance of a daughter:

May God remember the soul of my beloved daughter who has gone to her eternal rest. In tribute to her memory I pledge to perform acts of charity and goodness. May the deeds I perform and the prayers I offer help to keep her soul bound up in the bond of life as an enduring source of blessing. Amen.

For Personal Recitation of Yizkor

YIZKOR - In remembrance of a father:

May God remember the soul of my beloved father who has gone to his eternal rest. In tribute to his memory I pledge to perform acts of charity and goodness. May the deeds I perform and the prayers I offer help to keep his soul bound up in the bond of life as an enduring source of blessing. Amen.

YIZKOR - In remembrance of a mother:

May God remember the soul of my beloved mother who has gone to her eternal rest. In tribute to her memory I pledge to perform acts of charity and goodness. May the deeds I perform and the prayers I offer help to keep her soul bound up in the bond of life as an enduring source of blessing. Amen.

YIZKOR - In remembrance of a husband:

May God remember the soul of my beloved husband who has gone to his eternal rest. In tribute to his memory I pledge to perform acts of charity and goodness. May the deeds I perform and the prayers I offer help to keep his soul bound up in the bond of life as an enduring source of blessing. Amen.
Memorial Prayer for Fallen Members of the US Armed Forces

Eternal and Compassionate God whose mercies fill the earth, at this sacred time of remembrance our thoughts turn to all those men and women of the Armed Forces of the United States who have given their lives in the defense of freedom for all people. Keep these pure souls, who shine brightly through Your creation, sheltered firmly beneath Your wings. May the memory of their lives serve as an inspiration to us and as a comfort to all their loved ones. May they rest in peace among all the righteous of our people. And let us say, Amen.

composed by Commander US Navy Chaplains Rabbi Maurice Karpov

Yizkor for Hazalim - for those of the Israel Defense Forces who gave their lives in battle:

May God remember the souls of the fallen of the Israel Defense Forces who gave their lives for the sanctification of the Name, the People and the Land, who died a noble death in missions of liberation, defense and security. They were rarer than eagles and stronger than lions as they volunteered to assist the people and with their pure blood soaked the earth of our holy land. The memory of their self-sacrifice and heroic deeds will never perish from us. May their souls be bound up in the Bonds of Life together with the souls of all Jewish heroes and martyrs who are in the Garden of Eden. Amen.

Yizkor - in remembrance of a brother

May God remember the soul of my beloved brother who has gone to his eternal rest. In tribute to his memory, I pledge to perform acts of charity and goodness. May the deeds I perform and the prayers I offer help to keep his soul bound up in the bonds of life as an enduring source of blessing. Amen

Yizkor - in remembrance of a sister

May God remember the soul of my beloved sister who has gone to her eternal rest. In tribute to her memory, I pledge to perform acts of charity and goodness. May the deeds I perform and the prayers I offer help to keep her soul bound up in the bonds of life as an enduring source of blessing. Amen

Yizkor - in remembrance of grandparents and all beloved relatives:

May God remember the soul of my beloved grandfather and grandmother and all beloved departed relatives and dear friends who have gone to their eternal rest. In tribute to their memory, I pledge to perform acts of charity and goodness. May the deeds I perform and the prayers I offer help to keep their souls bound up in the bonds of eternal life as an enduring source of blessing. Amen.

In memory of the Six Million and all Jewish Martyrs Throughout the Ages:

Exalted, compassionate God, grant perfect peace in Your sheltering Presence, among the holy and the pure, to the souls of the six million precious lives, men, women, and children of the House of Israel who were slaughtered and slaughtered and burned to ashes. May their memory endure, inspiring us and loyalty in our lives. May their souls that are bound up in the bond of life. May they rest in peace. And let us say: Amen.

In memory of those we have loved and lost:

Exalted, compassionate God, grant perfect peace among the holy and the pure, in Your sheltering Presence, to the souls of all our beloved who have gone to their eternal homes. May their memory endure as inspiration for deeds of charity and goodness in our lives. May their souls thus be bound up in the bond of life. May they rest in peace. And let us say: Amen.

They Lie in Nameless Graves

At this hour of memorial we recall with grief all Your children who have perished through the cruelty of the oppressor, victims of demonic hate, the aged and young, the learned and unlearned—all driven in multitudes along the road of pain and pointless death. Their very presence on earth was begrudged them, for they brought Your covenant of mercy and justice to the recognition of Your enemies; they perished because they were a symbol of Your eternal law; their death has brought darkness to the human soul.

They lie in nameless graves, in far-off forests and lonely fields. And the substance of many was scattered by the winds to the earth's four corners. Yet they shall not be forgotten. We take them into our hearts and give them a place beside the cherished memories of our own loved ones. They are now ours.

We pray to You, O Source of mercy, that Your Torah, to which these Your children bore witness in life and in death, may come to glow with a renewed light in the human soul; that, remembering them, we may sanctify Your name in all the world. That will their memory become an enduring blessing to all Your children.

Kaddish as Words of Praise

In a moment, we will rise for the recitation of Kaddish on this sacred day. The Kaddish prayer, composed in Aramaic, the language of the Talmud, is often thought of as a prayer for the dead and yet there is no mention of death or the deceased. It is recited in memory of the dead and yet it is a prayer of praise to God but how do we praise God when we are filled with tears of loss? Why would we praise God after suffering the loss of one whom we loved dearly?

Even with our loss and pain, our tradition would have us remember the goodness and beauty of life and the time and love we shared with those who were once part of our lives. For that and more we offer praise to G-d. Our remembering today is to focus on the happiness and love shared and not only the pain of loss. That our loved ones have left this world we can not change but we can hold on to the memories of their lives. As we do, we offer these sacred words of praise to G-d. Too often, we are reminded that life can be painful. We need to remind ourselves of the beauty and happiness and wonder of life as well.

The mystics offer another explanation for reciting Kaddish. God, they say, also mourns the death of His children. God sheds tears along with us and is in need of consolation. Our recitation of the Kaddish is our comforting of God even as we ask God to comfort us.

The Kaddish ends with the familiar words:

תִּשְׂבָּא שְׁבוּעַ וּתִשְׁמָע בַּעֲשָׂרָה מִנְיָנִים וּתְקַלֵּל עֲשָׂרָה שְׁבוּעָה לְהוֹ בְּעַד כִּלְּכָלָם שְׁלוֹשָׁה.

-May God who makes peace in the heavens grant peace to us and all Israel. May our recitations of the Kaddish bring us a sense of peace and healing. May we come to know the true joys and happiness and love that life has for us and feel moved again and again to offer works of praise to G-d.

Eliott N. Perlstein
MOURNER’S KADDISH

Magnified and sanctified be God’s great name in the world which He has created according to His will. May He establish His kingdom soon, in our lifetime. Let us say: Amen.

May His great name be praised to all eternity.

Hallowed and honored, extolled and exalted, adored and acclaimed be the name of the Holy One, though He is infinitely beyond all praises, hymns, and songs of adoration which are uttered. Let us say: Amen.

May God grant abundant peace and life to us and to all Israel. Let us say: Amen.

May He who ordains harmony in the universe grant peace to us and to all Israel. Let us say: Amen.
